Take a step don't bend your knees
Throw back your head like you're gonna sneeze
Puff up your chest till you bust your vest
Then look around like you don't say please

Strut upon the floor like you're the captain of the Earth
Check out all the people like you know what they are worth
Hold your arms out to the side
Swing them slow with righteous pride
You've got to do the Brutus right tonight

Get off your bootus
And do the Brutus
It's quite a hootus
Do the Brutus

Strut up on the floor like you're the captain of the Earth
Look at all the people like you know what they are worth
Move your head from side to side
Cast your gaze with righteous pride
Got to do the Brutus right tonight
