she said typewrite
sad and all i had
she said circles in squares ain't bad she said find it
that was all i had she'd give everything for anything and all i had i borrowed you gotta break this yeah and she'll break me in sad paperweight
sad and all i had
sad subtleties make her mad said drown it
sad and all i had
she'd give everything for anything
out of my system
measure me in love and
i hate you
i miss you
i pity you
she wanna?
(well doesn't everybody?)
