Hey, baby, do you love me?
When you find out, won't you tell me?
Hey, darling, my head is spinning
My world is changing and your eyes are changing too

So love what you got
Take care of your own
Take back what you're not
You won't ever go home

Hey, baby, I see you bleeding
They left you starving and retreating
'Cause sometimes life is good
When it's simple you do what you should

So love what you got
Take care of your own
Take back what you're not
You're going home

But you won't believe
But you don't believe
If you don't believe
I'm true

If they don't believe
Then you don't believe
I'm true, baby, I'm true, yeah

So love what you got
Take care of your own
Take back what you're not
You won't ever go home

You know who you are
You're not what you claim to be
If we all start again
Will we ever be free?

Hey, baby, do you love me?
When you find out, don't you tell me?
Don't you tell me?

Why don't you tell me? Yeah
