Generations, long before this time
Proud and hunting
To keep our tribe alive
Tundra's blazing we're gazing at the wild
Who will win this battle
And fiercely protect our child
All we need is fire heat
Protecting us from life
From blazing winds and ice and snow
Keep us safe from harm
People, come in
Be safe before the dark
Who will see tomorrow
See light before the spark
All we need is fire heat
Protecting us from life
From blazing winds and ice and snow
Keep us safe from harm
