why are you talking to intelligencer people than you are you can't express your opinion why are you runing with people much faster than you can you can't run 'way from here you don't know what's waiting for you at your home
you don't think about your own you don't worry 'bout the weather it's hot or cold you've got flustered in this world why are you wearing the clothes much more larger than you were wearing yesterday evening why d'you remember the time you were happy if it has no sence now in the meantime
