When you wake up in bed
And your heart's in a hell of a mess babe
When it's Saturday a.m.
And your body is saying it's over

Well I got the cure for what you're feeling
Just call me and I come healing
Take my hand and you won't drown

There's a new kid in town
And he's been playing around
He's got his eye on pretty Sundays and Mondays
I guess it looks like he's found
The only new girl in town
But is Saturday the one day
She'll say, come around?

When the daylight has shone
But your head is still out on the run babe
When your memory's still full of holes
That you're scared to remember

Well I got the cure for what you're feeling
Just call me and I come heeling
Take my hand and you won't drown

There's a new kid in town
And he's benn playing around
He's got his eye on pretty Sundays and Mondays
I guess it looks like he's found
The only new girl in town
But is Saturday the one day
She'll say, come around?

Do you feel like you could want me?
Or do you feel so tongue tied
Baby, don't cry

There's a new kid in town
And he's been playing around
He's got his eye on pretty Sundays and Mondays
I guess it looks like he's found

the only new gisl in town
But is Saturday the one day
She'll say, come around?
