All of my life
I have been waiting
For someone to come and change my life
And all of this time
I haven't been blessed with love
God knows I've been alone

I'm so glad that I found you
Girl, there's something about you
That makes me believe in love

Got a reason to love you
Got a reason to hug you
From all of my heart
My love, I'm yours
So many reasons to want you
And I always will run to
The love in my life, my dream,
The one

Never thought I could feel
Like I'm feeling this afternoon
I'm high above the sky
Never thought I could love
The way that I love you, girl
I'm halfway to the stars

I'm so glad that I found you
Girl, there's something about you
That makes me believe in love

Got a reason to love you
Got a reason to hug you
From all of my heart
My love, I'm yours
So many reasons to want you
And I always will run to
The love in my life, my dream,
The one

You open my eyes
And now I can see again

I'm free again
You open my heart
Now I can love again

Got a reason to love you
Got a reason to hug you
From all of my heart
My love, I'm yours
So many reasons to want you
And I always will run to
The love in my life, my dream,
The one

Got a reason to love you
Got a reason to hug you
From all of my heart
My love, I'm yours
And I always will run to
The love in my life, my dream,
The one

All of my life
For someone to change my life
