A flashlight
isn't quite sunlight but any light at all seems bright when you're looking in the dark.
A wet dream
isn't the real thing it isn't really anything but at least it makes a spark And all is relative everything is relative.

chorus:

It's all about the way we receive it how much we believe it depending on the life you lead, if you lead it compare it to yourself compared to someone else, you care and if you pick the threads in your closet the cash in your wallet the color of the skin in your blood and how you got it compare it yourself and someone else, you care
everything is relative

Pre made isn't quite homemade but premade with a home name is almost just the same.
Your girlfriend, isn't your best friend but any friend is best when you're freezing in the rain.
And all is relative, everything is relative.

You're either underweight or you're unfit underdressed or overzipped too social or you're just too shy too depressed or you're too high night to day
day to night rich to poor
black and white
