In the heart of the city, I'm awake now
And the buzz open to the night
You're the Libertine, you're Philistine
When I first saw you I knew I was done

With you I feel again, with you I arise
Feeling invincible, this moment's mine

Strangest landscapes, see the sky flip inside out
Turning nightmares into dreams that bring you 'round There's danger in the street, that's the beauty in the
beast
There's danger in the street, that's the beauty in the
beast

In the blink of an eye you seem to get me
You are my first but I can't see your ride Eye on the wheel another on my heart
I know this road, goes back to the start

With you I feel again, with you I arise
Feeling invincible, this moment's mine

Strangest landscapes, see the sky flip inside out
Turning nightmares into dreams that bring you 'round
There's danger in the street, that's the beauty in the
beast
There's danger in the street, that's the beauty in the
beast

Yellow moon works when everyone's asleep
Sometimes what you want is just out of reach

Strangest landscapes, see the sky flip inside out
Turning nightmares into dreams that bring you 'round
There's danger in the street, that's the beauty in the
beast
There's danger in the street, that's the beauty in the
beast

Strangest landscapes, how you make me come around Turning nightmares into dreams that bring you around

There's danger in the street, there's danger in the street
There's danger in the street, danger in the street
That's the beauty in the beast
