It is cheesed with power and the morality of which it goes mad
A lot of people became dogs having tied to be chain
Your happy there?

I want to be enjoying the life though it will knock against a high wall hereafter I'm already dead however I was saved with the rock

I swore it at that time. I will walk life that shines highest There is no fear. It gets it over though there is a painful day too Now let's go. The wing expands and goes to look for freedom and the glory
The world that extends to the place waits surely for you

Odoranaika? Real Cinderella Kizudarakeno garasuno m?chinnde

Hey God! Are you ready?

Kikaseteyo "bodies"
