

Brainless Wankers "Register Your Life"

Visit "Register Your Life" on MotoLyrics.com

please shake well before use and don't miss your reward | trust in the billboard | please remember to use your customer card | save cash and be smart | surprise you can have a big slice | and you'll get it half price so
why should you think twice | you just gotta register your life | were you not satisfied with our product range | don't forget your change | buy now die later and think of your kids at home | they need their hormone | surprise you can have a big slice | and you'll get it half price so why should you think twice | you just gotta register your life | register your life | register your life | we know who you are | we store your data | we know who you are | we store your data | we know who you are | we store your data | surprise you can have a big slice | and you'll get it half price | register your life | surprise
life
