Sleep all day and hide all night
Reading dirty books by candle light
I'm insane, I'm not okay
Somebody pray for me, yeah

Who can save me?
Who can save me?
Who can save me tonight?

I'm being chased, my dog's on the phone
My stereo's got a mind of it's own
The radio plays the same crappy songs
Somebody pray for me, yeah

Who can save me?
Who can save me?
Who can save me tonight?

'Cause I'm down
I'm down, man
I'm so fucking down

The king appears, he touches my soul
Possessed by the ghost of rock 'n' roll
He died for the rock, he died for my sins
Somebody pray for me, yeah

Who can save me?
Who can save me?
Who can save me tonight?

Well alright now
Blow my mind now
I'm so down now
I'm so down now, honey
