It's been two years since we broke up, but it still feels like it was yesterday
Even though we're walking down different roads I still look towards your direction sometimes

I can't say that I want things to be like before Because it's not cool
But despite that I still love you
So much that I can't do anything about it...

I cried every night, which was shameful
I even tried to forget you because it was so hard
But I still think about you.
I'm still so lonely...

Where are you, and what are you doing? Were you able to reach your precious dreams...
Maybe worrying is unnecessary But please, don't erase me from your memory

Do you still remember? Those precious days
When tears and smiles were still spilling
We cried together saying that We would meet again, that we'd never forget each other...

Even though I'm such a weak crybaby
Will you walk with me once more?
I'll wait for years until that day comes

Please let me hear your voice I'm right here
I won't go anywhere anymore I'll stay here forever
I want to hear your voice, so I'll call you
But today, this call is rejected again...
Are you avoiding me? I don't even know that
But one day I found you

You, smiling happily
You were holding hands with the person you love now
You were so grown up and so beautiful
And even though I should've been sad, I was happy

It was enough to see that you're doing fine...
I pretend to be strong

I couldn't even talk to you and I held back my tears
All I did was wave my hand a little Saying thank you, and stay healthy
Good bye to you

I'm still wishing for your happiness
You, that I love so much that I will never be able to see again
Thank you so much, from the bottom of my heart
Goodbye, take care
Until the day we meet again...

July 8th, (Thursday) Sunny day
