Lets just say i was really in touch with my pain don't think i ever felt such emptiness lets just say i was lucky i didn't go insane with all the shit i had buried in my head somehow i just crawl back, crawl back, crawl back, crawl back, crawl back, crawl back well you say that i never ever let you in, i just keep everything all to myself well i swear i'll never ever hurt you again, i won't fuck this up but if i do...

then i'll just crawl back, crawl back, crawl back, crawl back, crawl back with my insincerity and my insecurity
