She knows the secrets no one knows and shes' sweeter than the rose gardenia says we're gonna drown like ophelia we'll float on down

she says we're nearer to the end and very soon there will be nothing left

(oh no,oh no)

she says theres' really no escape, yeah she says we've sealed our fate gardenia sees the world in flames her intuition says its much to late

i can't believe when she says that pretty soon everything will be dead

there'll be no people left to give them there'll be no air for us to breathe there'll be no need for hell or heaven

and very soon there will be nothing left

there'll be no need to be forgiven
