"A Fridge Too Far"

Visit "A Fridge Too Far" on MotoLyrics.com

I've seen the carnage that you've caused, smelt the power you've absorbed.
Been a witness to every crime,
and I'm dissatisfied all the time.
I wonder how you can sleep at night,
you're slumping to an all new record height.
You won't be forgotten for a long time,
you had your pound of flesh now I want mine.

We've got a hero,
we have a laugh.
He wears a yellow tartan scarf, a sense of humour.
He's a real star see Rupert in a fridge too far.

Contempt for wealth is all you breed,
construct a conscience for all your greed.
Your restrictions they cut me deep,
and when you demise, I will not weep.
But life goes on they can't touch your mind,
you're the scourge of all mankind.
Now I ain't no portrait, I don't fly no flag,
you're the ambassador of hate, a diplomatic bag

Slap on the sanctions, show us some grit.
You've built your fence, now sit on it.
I hope all your dreams, go up in smoke,
'cause he who laughs last, didn't get the joke.
