Alcohol!

You're like a kind of religion,
I see you each night on television.
I can't remember all your names,
I love you running through my veins.

Alcohol, oh alcohol,
I love you in my brains.
Acohol, oh alcohol,
I never want you again.

I come and see you every night,
Take out my purse and I'll buy you a pint.
Would you like another? No thanks,
Tonight I'm wearing incontinence pants.

Alcohol, oh alcohol,
I love you in my brains.
Acohol, oh alcohol,
I never want you again.

Alcohol, oh alcohol,
I love you in my brains.
Acohol, oh alcohol,
I never want you again.
