Take a look at yourself from the other side and see if it's really you
The reason for life is living, so do what you gotta do
Catch the fire of inspiration, seek and you shall find
Go on down your own path, don't follow things so blind

Do what you do
(But know why you're doing it)
Do what you do for fun
Do what you do
(But know why you're doing it)
You're the only one

Trash and truth are easily mixed, split them with your ax
Burning ambitions fizzle out, don't listen to the facts
They've got power in supply, overload and fuse it Don't sit at home vegetating, you've got a brain so use it

Do what you do
(But know why you're doing it)
Do what you do for fun
Do what you do
(But know why you're doing it)
You're the only one, you're the only one now

Do what you do
(But know why you're doing it)
Do what you do for fun
Do what you do
(But know why you're doing it)
You're the only one, you're the only one now

Apathy is on the increase, problems are easily shared Freedom's on the horizon, but I didn't know you cared Plant the seed of hope and promise, feed it, it will grow
Question all the answers, rock the Status Quo

Do what you do
(But know why you're doing it)
Do what you do for fun

Do what you do
(But know why you're doing it)
You're the only one

Do what you do
(But know why you're doing it)
Do what you do for fun
Do what you do
(But know why you're doing it)
You're the only one, you're the only one now
