He'll be buzzing in your head
When you're long gone
Fever burning, stomach churning
He can take you on

Maniac, he's a maniac and he's on the loose

A wild eyed maniac seeks you out
He wanted some revenge
A man obsessed, a man possessed
He'll get you in the end

He can read all your thoughts
So don't run for cover
There's aftermath in his path
He's gonna maim another

Your face will turn a ghostly white
As he comes into view
To slice you up is not enough
He must disfigure you
