We bang our heads against the wall but I'm sure that it won't fall Every day and every night it's a good time for a fight

But still I dream of better days maybe if we get away

You say you wanna be alone when you're talking on the phone So I slam the door and leave but I want to stay at home

But still I dream of better days
maybe if we get away

We can go to the USA
live our lives in a better way Change the constition
and you'll be my queen
Build a castle in Kentucky you and me are very lucky
We could raise a little family if we go to the USA

Well I guess I've been untrue so have you but still we lie We stay together every night and I still keep asking why

But still I dream of better days

We can go to the USA
live our lives in a better way
Change the constition
and you'll be my queen
Build a castle in Kentucky
you and me are very lucky
We could raise a little family
if we go to the USA

I don't know if we can work it out but living in America could maybe be a mirace change our lives for good I hope

We can go to the USA
live our lives in a better way
Change the constition
and you'll be my queen
Build a castle in Kentucky
you and me are very lucky
a family just you and me instead of two we will be three
if we go to the USA
if we go to the USA
if we go to the USA
