I've never seen anything more beautiful
than the eyes on the side of Gina's head
I've never seen anything more beautiful
than the eyes on the side of Gina's head
Gina, Gina, Gina, Gina I've never seen anything more elegant than the neck that holds Gina's head up Gina...
I've never seen anything more motherly than her nipples make me want to drink her up I've never felt anything more motherly than a kiss from Gina when I get up

Gina...
I've never smelled anything so robust than when Gina's been playing in that trash I've never smelled anything so sweet than when she's fresh out of a warm bath Gina...
I've never seen anything more beautiful
than the eyes on the side of Gina's head
