I take the path of least resistance
Nothing stops pure persistence
Excuse me if I am insistent
Searching for my find.
I lost a love a long time ago
I gave it up too easily you know
Now I am glowing lava flow
Obstacles subside
I'll find my way around it
I'll find my way around it
I'll find my way around
To the low
Look out here I come like a snowball
Getting larger with every fall
Soon I'll be twenty five feet tall
And still picking up mass
I'll become an avalanche
You know that big people can really dance
If you're not afraid to take chances
Someday you
