Lyrics by Sanrabb

Immaculate and perfect

The one who stands alone

Bleeding the blue flame

A man-being veiled into another form

Bleeding the blue flame

Victimized, nothing but a human cast

You are bleeding the blue flame

What has become of this man?

He cannot even see his own pain

He is bleeding the blue flame

This man will be made to suffer

This one will be the first

Bleed!

Yet man and devil are not too far apart

He who seeks evil within his own heart

This man will be made to suffer

Blessed with every curse

Of darkness
