Lyrics by Sanrabb

Midnight, cling to your soul

You are writhing in pain

Fire calling you back to suffer again

Anger results in failure

You believe in a dying god

Burning, you cannot look the other way

You believe in a dying god

Will tomorrow bring you pain?

Will tomorrow be a new day?

Rise and shine or fade

Are you alive or are you dead?

Time will tell

Mankind seeks an evil god... believe

Satan lives eternally

When morning comes can you feel your beating heart?

Show yourself

In Light of night

This is the way to hell

Time will tell

Time will tell

Mankind seeks an evil god!
