This night is silent, I set the world out of it's track

Until only ashes circle around the moon

Close your eyes, follow me blindly

Goddess let my ice cold semen of gods flow through

Your only prayer...

Close your eyes and walk my path

I alter the moon's direction

Look around never stop to speak

The star seems to move towards them

Sun groaning in ice, so no longer will the sun shine

Nor the snake leave it's shiny skin

O children of the dark will you run with me?

Find the palace

By way a higher bidding

Your only prayer be heard

Come with me I heard their screams

Frightfully as I watched them.....die

Can you know?

Burn

Can you match me?

Soon

Can you leave?

The sun

Can you feel?

Burn

Your only prayer be heard

Sun groaning in ice; so no longer will the sun shine

O children of the dark will you walk my path?

Can you know?

Burn

Can you match me?

Soon

Can you leave?

The sun

Can you feel?

Burn
