come, oh, come early
i'm afraid of getting colder, colder keep the night burning
to shine our love always, always pictures on the wall her pictures on my wall she's so beautiful, so beautiful climbing up to fall i'm climbing up to fall i'm still staying cool, i'm staying cool one day i'll find you just to prove that i'm real out of love and hate, of love and hate and losing ties with common sense, baby, i know i will make a bridge to place where my mind goes

thousands of the walls 8 billions of the walls
she's so beautiful, so beautiful digi-dogs around her digi-dogs around i'm still staying cool, well, i'm staying cool i'm losing all i have and all i ever will

i'm losing daydreams and a good night sleep oh, baby, our passions are hiding deep

always, always
