The small, the large and the human mind
Never tells how it feels
It boils and boils and leaves you dry
Wanna know hot it tastes for real?

And if the sun seems grey no light
I can make it digitally bright
Going out to colour the mountains
Slow it down or speed it up
Turn around and make a stop
And we'll care for making it right

And if the sun seems grey no light
I can make it digitally bright
Going out to colour the mountains
Slow it down or speed it up
Turn around and make a stop
And we'll care for making it right

It goes and goes and passes by
What are they looking for?
It boils and boils and leaves you dry
This real taste asks for more

And if the sun seems grey no light
I can make it digitally bright
Going out to colour the mountains
Slow it down or speed it up
Turn around and make a stop
There's no way of not making it right
There's no way of not making it right

Mexican border
6 a.m. twilight
It's never easy to cross any borders
Without any papers
No requests and no orders
It has never been easy to cross any borders
