for a better life
under thousands of rainbows warm is the sun
getting wet when the rain goes

taking breath of each other dad is the moonlight
divine is your mother

we'll follow the raindrops
falling free into love's ocean we won't be afraid of giving all of our devotion

now or never
as we deserve it
staying young forever

gorgeous is giving and isn't it simply – when the day dies the night is for living

look, those are colours we know
but there are more and i'm gonna show we won't be late
it's time to go

we won't be afraid of getting lost in the sea of emotions

for a better life

for a better life
