I'm on the road to nowhere don't know what is waiting there for me somewhere I see a white light I close my eyes, I'm sailing far away
I had enough to fight another day
I feel the urge to leave No longer life in shadows now I'm the chosen one I close my eyes forever more Take me to the other side close the door beyond the light
Take me to the other side where no sin grows where no sin lives where unholy power dies I'm flying to the light now into the hall where judgement awaits me I here some distant voices
I know I hear the people pray for me I'm on my way, my journey has begun my candles have been burned
