Can you ever release me
Or do you fear the pain?
You're the better part of me and it doesn't matter where you've been

'Cause I'm counting broken pieces
And I'm taking over to the light
I fall asleep to meet you where
All my dreams and fears unite

Wherever you are
I'm hiding myself behind
But the sadness in your eyes
Makes me hold you tight

I never meant to lie
This is the last goodbye
There's nothing else to do
When worlds are comin' through

Almost read my mind
Afraid of what I'll find
I'm comin' closer to you
When worlds are comin' through

Why couldn't you tell me
About the perfection of pain?
Now you're comin' over
From breaking all the boundaries of shame

But every time you think of me
I'm comin' through walls
And picking up all the pieces
Right before the darkness falls

There's no more laughter
There's nothing left undone (nothing left undone)
I'm leaving this
Insanity and on my own

I never meant to lie

This is the last goodbye
There's nothing else to do
When worlds are comin' through

Almost read my mind
Afraid of what I'll find
I'm comin' closer to you
When worlds are comin' through

Worlds are comin' through...

Wherever you are
I'm hiding myself behind (hiding myself behind)
But the sadness in your eyes
Makes me hold you tight

I never meant to lie
This is the last goodbye

Almost read my mind
I'm comin' closer to you

I never meant to lie

Almost read my mind
I'm comin' closer to you

Comin' closer to you...
