Good morning,
what took you so long to receive our transmission now let it comfort you Don't forget

the light never left Dont forget this aint the truth
Dont forget yourself so soon

I see the state you're in, felt too much and now you dont feel anything Dont Forget
its just a light a you miss

Dont Forget this aint the truth
Dont forget yourself so soon

I cant believe it

Late at night the air is beaten black, we're lying, you've got your head on my stomach

Dont forget this aint the truth
Dont forget yourself so soon
Dont forget yourself, dont forget yourself so soon
