"Making Waves"

Lay me down in the daylight moments
Follow you around to your place
And I'll just sit here and watch you

Making waves, making waves

And there is no sea at all

I don't know how you do it
So full to your belly with sand
I could just sit here forever and watch you

Making waves, oh you're making waves
I watch you making waves

Where there's no sea at all

Making waves
Oh you're making waves
I watch you making waves
Oh you're making waves
