"A Car That Sped"

You have to do it on your own
I can't aid you any more
You must learn to breath alone
Then all this is yours.
Your shoulders are strong
So lengthen your stride
When you're alone
There is light outside.
I don't recall the time we spent
It's hidden in a car that sped
To it's death and to it's rest.
So give up the thoughts that bring you dread
And hide them in the car
That sped me to my death
And to my rest.
You have to do it on your own
I can't help you any more.
You must learn to live alone
Then all this is yours

When you dream
I'll be guiding your thoughts
So find the world
And take what's yours.
