When darkness folds
across this old sky
yes I'll open up
for you that night

but still shadows they come am i safe in your arms?
can i be your source
of love tonight?

I'll wait for the day
when you creep through the window and hold me smash into my life now and hold me don't set me free
ive waited too long, yes im dying smash into me someone and hold me speed into this shell now and hold me hold me, hold me

can you tell me
will i ever dream again?
in your arms
i now know that im home again im home again (3x)

im drunk for your love
speed into my life
and speak to me now
oh just speak to me someone for i know your taste
and i can supply
