So freely you curse my glance
This country's not seen
Insults so far advanced
But me, I saw you go alone

It's easy when you're not here
I just say the right words
When you're not here
But me, I saw you go home alone

But still it's you I will defend
Until time's very ends

Oh, I'm at my lowest ebb
So please don't take that tone
If this doesn't feel like home
And you still can't find the phone

It's easy when you're not here
I just think the right words
When you're not here
But me, I saw you go home alone

But still it's you I will defend
Until times when get ends

Oh, I'm at my lowest ebb
So please don't take that tone
If this doesn't feel like home
And you still can't find the phone

And my air is getting thin
And I have good cause to moan
And you still can't find the phone
And I'm left here on my own
