These are the last words
I'll ever write
Meet me tonight
Meet me tonight
Meet me tonight

This is the last time
I'll ever ring you
I know what you do
I like what you do
I want what you do

I've been saving up
I really need a looker
I've been saving up
I beg you please
Give me what I need
And I will love you for an hour

This is the last time
I'll ever sing
Do your thing
You know what I mean
Do that thing

This is the last time
I'll ever call you
I know what you do
Like what you do
Need what you do

I've been saving up
I really need a looker
I've been saving up
I beg you please
Give me what I need
And I will love you for an hour

Give me what I need
And I will love you for an hour

Give me thirty quid
And I will love you for an hour

Ok we'll call it twentyfive
And I will love you for an hour

I give you what I need
And I will take it for an hour

Look I know it's slightly strange
But I'll still love you for an hour

Give me what I need
And I will love you for an hour
