I got a message here for ya cos ya hurt me too much your face is my canvas and a stanley my brush you wont forget me in a rush do you have someone with you?

cos you'll never know when your face will be paper and a stanley me pen you'll never see that girl again

I've been down for too long but is power so wrong?
the balance is slowly moving I now know where you belong and soon you'll be gone
the police will never find ya here's a note and a forecast cos you hurt me too much those kneecaps look tender is a hammer enough? ha! you wont forget me in a rush so I've been down for too long

but is power so wrong?
the balances are slowly moving and I now know where you belong
and soon you'll be gone

I've been under too long but my intent is strong the balance is slowly shifting I now know where you reside and I know where to hide police will never find ya
