There are times when friends forsake you
And you're facing dark at night
Have a little faith in what you do
And everything's gonna be alright

You're not alone with trouble
For I have trouble too
Have a little faith in what you do and
You're bound to make it safely through

For each new friend that you make
Will help you on your way, yeah
Do unto others as you
Have them do to you
And I know, I know there'll be one
Waiting above for you

Let not your heart be troubled
Say a prayer at night
Have a little faith in what you do
And everything's gonna be alright
