The moon can light the sky
At night, for me again
The sun can make the daytime
Bright and fun again

And my heart can be free
The way it wants to be
'Cause you come back
To me again

The wind blows pain and clouds
Of rain away again
And let's me stay with
Just a happy day again

'Cause now, I really see
How much you do love me
How good the world
Can be again

Oh, when you left that day
I forgot how to care
And I hid myself away
But now, since you are here

The winter days will seem
Like spring to me again
With all the love that you
Will bring to me again

And no matter, what I'll do
I will always see it through
'Cause I won't be
Without you again
