What in the world were you thinking of last summer?
What was the price you paid in silver and gold?
Well, I might be wrong but I've got such a surprise for you
Am I wrong to tell you that I'm over you?

What can I do to make my dreams all come true?
What can I say to make the cruel world go away?
Am I wrong to tell you that I'm over you?
Am I wrong to tell you that I'm over you?

You know I've been waiting a long time
You know I've been waiting a long time
Tangled up in you, the truth is only one step behind
Tangled up in you

What was the word that he used to make you his own?
What was the line that made you succumb to his will?
Am I wrong to tell you that I'm over you?
Am I wrong to tell you that I'm over you?

You know I've been waiting a long time
Tangled up in you
You know I've been waiting a long time
The truth is only one step behind
Tangled up in you, tangled up in you
Oh yeah, yeah, yeah

You know I've been waiting a long time
Tangled up in you
You know I've been waiting a long time
The truth is only one step behind
Tangled up in you

I'm lost and I'm lonely and I want you to hold me
Yeah, yeah
The truth is only one step behind
Tangled up in you
