How can you love somebody
Who has broken your heart and left you to cry alone?
How can you love somebody
Who is only a dream man, whose heart you will never know?

I wanna know the answer, is it all that hard to love?
I wanna know the answer but I don't know where to turn

How can you love somebody
The way I love you? Without praying it never ends
I wanna know the answer is it all that hard to love?
I wanna know the answer but I don't know where to turn

How can you find forgiveness?
There are somethings just too hard to forgive too easily
How can you find forgiveness?
God, I give it a try if you just come back to me
