I gave my love a diamond,whisper small
I made my love a promise,tower tall
I said"One day, just wait
I'll buy the world for you
One day you'll see my promise,will come true"

She looked down at the diamond
Whisper small
And said "It sparkles brighter,than them all"
She said "I'll need no more,as long as I may live, You gave me love, what greater gift,can anyone give"

ooooh,ooooh,ooooh,oooooh,ooooh,ooooh,ooooh
What greater gift,can anyone give?

So I made a promise,in reply
A vow that I will honor,till I die
The one I buy for you,maybe but
whisper small
My love will be forever, tower tall
