(Jollie Hollie)

To feel her arms around me would be like heaven
Just a thought is nothing short of divide
The thrill I'd like to feel is have her love me
But I'd settle for just crossing her mind.

To know she thought of me would bring me pleasure
Oh, what I'd give for that small part of her time
I'd like to have and hold her forever
But I'd settle for just crossing her mind.

--- Instrumental ---

To wake up every morning with her beside me
To feel her lovely body touching mine
I'd like to get much closer than looking
But I'd settle for just crossing her mind.

To know she thought of me would bring me pleasure
Oh, what I'd give for that small part of her time
I'd like to have and hold her forever
But I'd settle for just crossing her mind.

Yes, I'd settle for just crossing her mind...
