Won't you talk to me , my darlin', tell me what a fool I am Dry your eyes, sweetheart, they're still a little moist I'm so sorry that I've cheated, please forgive me if you can
Just don't look at me in that tone of voice

You refused me when I craved a woman's soft carress
And my frame of mind was at an all time low
I reached out for someone else to fill my emptiness
But I didn't find it there so I came home alone

Don't give me that silent treatment, lose your temper, call me names
That me that you could have made a better choice Run me down, I've got it coming, say that I should be ashamed
Just don't look at me in that tone of voice
No don't look at me in that tone of voice
