"Right Beside You"

How it began, there I am
In the evening twilight
A refugee down by the sea
Moving along on and on
By a lonesome highway
And one of these days
Iâ€™m gonna set me free, I believe!

Weathered and torn
I stood in the storm
There Iâ€™s remain, the sorrow I brought
And I never thought that Iâ€™d come in from the rain
You come to terms
You live and you learn
From all the bad breaks
Itâ€™s you and you
In the big bad world facing up to the heart aches

But there I am
Right beside you
No one else
Just you and me
In the moment
In the flow of traffic
Itâ€™s all getting a bit easier to see
