There's nothing here I can understand
And no one cares, I'm lonely man
I touch your face and I don't know why
Call your name but you're going by
Now I'm alone again

Oh, I have no name for each and every day
Until the year is done and fades away
There's a time in between the two Old years gone but it's not the new

And I, I, I, I know that I'll be all alone again
Alone again tonight
Oh, I'm alone again, alone again tonight
Oh, I'm alone again
And it seems to me that everytime
I try to change, say that you'll, say that
You'll help me reach the other side

Then when the morning comes the sun is out
And warms me up again
What a funny world it is for me
And all I'll ever be

It's not enough, it's not enough
This feeling I'm feeling inside

Oh, I know it, I know tonight that I'll be
On my own tonight, alone again tonight
Oh, I'm alone again, alone again tonight
Oh, I'm alone again
And it seems to me that everytime
I try to change, say that you'll, say that
You'll help me reach the other side

Help me please 'cos I know I'm gonna be
On my own again, alone again tonight
Oh, I'm alone again, alone again tonight
I'm all alone, alone again tonight, tonight, tonight
