We're waiting for you
Come and join us now
We need you with us
Come and join us now

Look inside your mind
See the darkness is creeping in
I can see the softness there
Where the sunshine is gliding in
Fill your mind with love
Find the world of future glory

You can meet yourself
Where the sour turns to sweet
Leave your ugly selfish shell
To melt in the glowing flames
Can you sense the change
See your eyes, now you listen

We're waiting for you
Come and join us now
We want you with us
Come and join us now

Paint your face all white
To show the peace inside
Drift away while the saffron burns
To the land where the rainbow ends
Can you sense the change
See your eyes, now focus

We're waiting for you
Come and join us now
We need you with us
Come and join us now ...
We're waiting for you

Come and join us now
We need you with us
Come and join us now

Look inside your mind

See the darkness is creeping in
I can see the softness there
Where the sunshine is gliding in
Fill your mind with love
Find the world of future glory

You can meet yourself
Where the sour turns to sweet
Leave your ugly selfish shell
To melt in the glowing flames
Can you sense the change
See your eyes, now you listen

We're waiting for you
Come and join us now
We want you with us
Come and join us now

Paint your face all white
To the land where the rainbow ends
Can you sense the change

We're waiting for you
Come and join us now
We need you with us
Come and join us now ...
