whatever poisons in this bottle will leave me broken sore and stiff, well its the genie at the bottom who im sucking at,

he owes me one last wish so heres a present to let u kno that i still exist i hope the next boy u kiss has something terribly contagious on his lips but i got a plan ill drink for 40 days n 40 nites a sip for every second hand tick and every time you fed the line, "you mean so much to me" im without you so tell all the english boys u meet about the american boy back in the states the american boy u used 2 date who would do anything u say tell all the english boys u meet about the american boy back in the states the american boy u used 2 date who would do anything u say n even if her plane crashes 2nite she'll find some way

2 dissappoint me by not burning in the wreckage or drowning at the bottom of the sea, "Jess i still taste u and reserve my rite to hate you" and all this empty space that you create does nothing for my flawless sense of style its 8:45 the wheathers gettin better by the hour, i hope it rains there all the time and if you've ever said you missed me, then dont say you never lied, tell all the english boys you meet bout the american boy back in the states the american boy u used 2 date who would do anything u say tell all the english boys u meet bout the american boy back in the states the american boy u used to date who would do anything u say who would do anything u say ur never gonna get it right ur never gonna get it never gonna get it right ur never gonna get it never gonna get it right ur never gonna

get it never gonna get it right ur never gonna get it never gonna get it right ur never gonna get it never gonna get it right ur never gonna

get it never gonna get it right ur never gonna get it ur

get it right ur never gonna get it never gonna get it right ur never gonna get it right never gonna get it ur never gonna get it never gonna get it right ur never gonna get it never gonna get it right ur never gonna get it never gonna get it right ur never

right tell all the english boys u meet about the american boy back in the states the american boy u used to date who would do anything u

say."
