"Shelter"

I was born in the city
There's no flies on me
Life can't deliver
No surprise to me
Got a head full of trouble
The world's weight on my back
I'm a fighter
I survive like that
I'm a modern enigma
I am living proof
Cold eyes speaking volumes
Of my troubled youth
I believe in the future
>From mistakes I have grown
Leaving the shadows
Which were once my home
Need your hand to help me over
Need your shoulder
Need your light to bring me closer
To your shelter
Been so long in the bitter

City air I breath

Seen a million believers

Cry in disbelief

I won't give in to the pressure

Keep my spirit intact

'Cause I know when I need you

You will watch my back

CHORUS:

Need your hand to help me over

Need your shoulder

Need light to bring me closer

To your shelter

Need your hand to help me over

Need your shoulder

Need your light to bring me closer

To your shelter

They can't take you away from me

When they try it only makes me stronger

Through the dark it's your light I see

Helping to show me the way

Knowing I'll be safe in your shelter

Knowing I'll be safe in your shelter

Knowing I'll be safe in your shelter

Knowing I'll be safe in your shelter

Repeat Chorus Once
