The World keeps on spinning

The World keeps on spinning yeah

World keeps on spinning

The worlds keeps on spinning yeah

Hey, now I know you're gonna be okay

Time keeps on changing but I know we're gonna win anyway

Oh how I've done you wrong

There ain't a thing that I can say to you to make it better

Sometimes we must be strong

You know that life goes on for us

If we cannot be together

Don't cheat yourself

Happiness is 'round the corner

It will come to you

So have faith in future love

'Coz there's heaven up above

When we think we've reached the end

The World keeps on spinning

Hey, you know that time can be a healer

So they say

We mustn't be afraid to let our lonely nights

become a brand new day

Oh how I've done you wrong

I couldn't offer you a hope or find a better way

This time we must be strong, our friendship lasts beyond all else

don't let it fade away

Don't let it fade away
